

Voice Thread instructions...

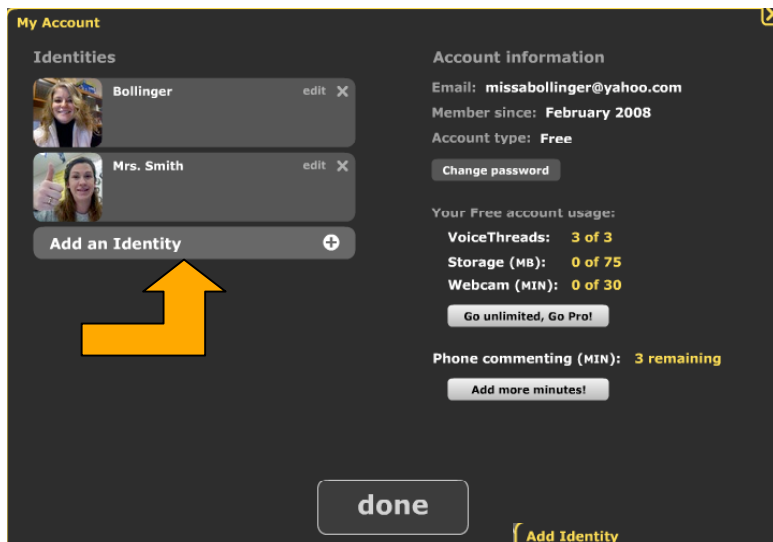

1. Log into www.voicethread.com
 Username = missabollinger@yahoo.com
 Password = English

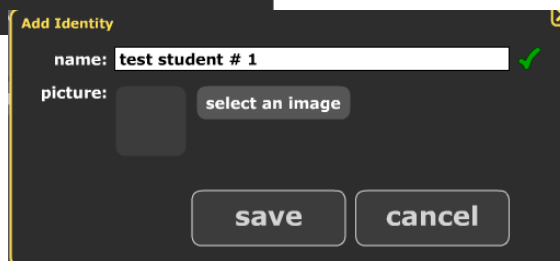

2. Choose Poem # 1
 This is the poem that will open. Miss B's comment will play automatically.
 Read her poem. Now it is time for you to comment.

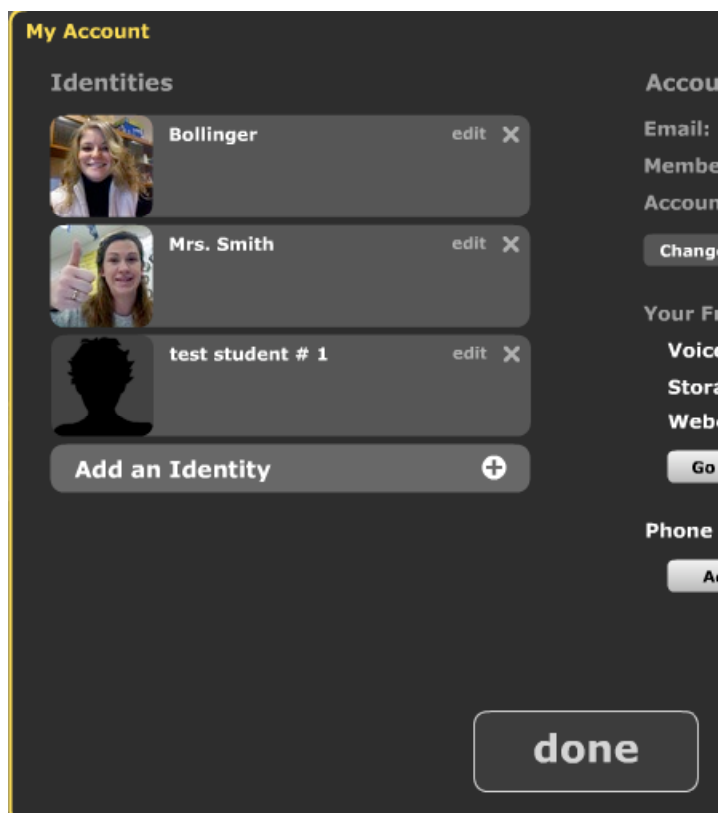

3. Click on Miss B's pic at the bottom
4. The smaller box entitled "Switch Identities:" will pop up with Miss B and Mrs. Smith's pics. Click on >create another identity.

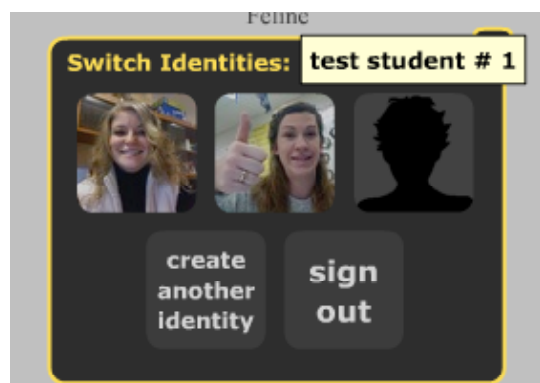

5. Click>Add an Identity
6. In the smaller box entitled "Add Identity", type your first name and import a picture from the desktop. (You will need to stop right now, minimize this screen and open photobooth to take your picture. After you take your picture move it to the desktop and name it.)
7. Select your picture from the desktop and your image and choose > save.

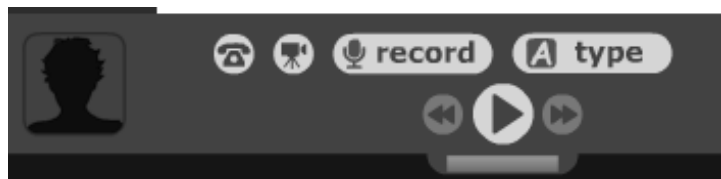

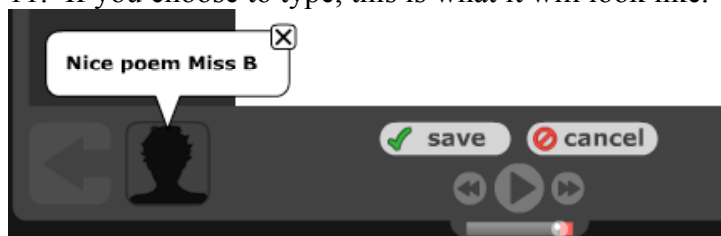

8. Now your picture will show under Miss B and Mrs. Smith. You can click done.
9. Next you will need to choose your picture from the “Switch Identities” box. You can get this by clicking on the small pic of Miss B under the poem.

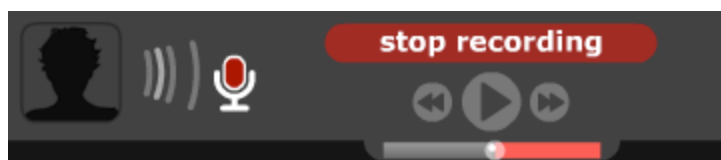

10. When you choose your identity you will be given the option to record or type as you see below.

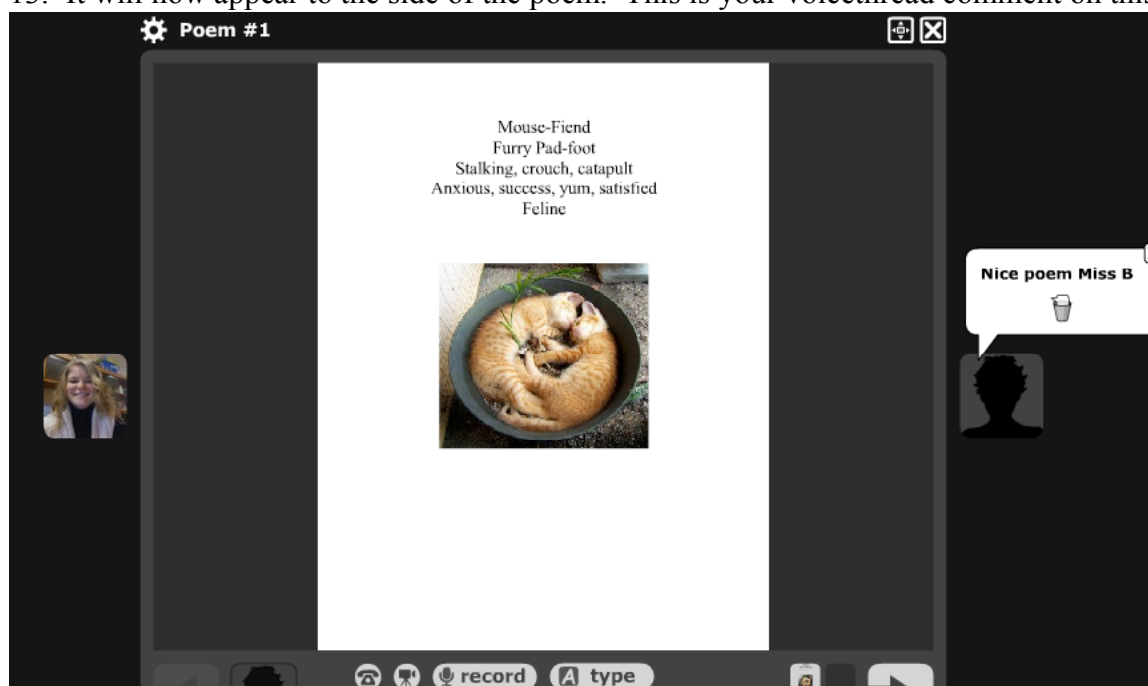

11. If you choose to type, this is what it will look like. When you are done typing your comment, click > save.

12. If you choose to record your voice, choose record and start recording (sometimes it starts automatically, be prepared) Click on “stop recording” when you are done with your recording.

13. It will now appear to the side of the poem. This is your voicethread comment on this particular item.

14. When your comment plays through it will automatically go to this screen. Choose the back arrow on the bottom left so the next person can add their comment.
